Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon neys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent

I that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the ates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made mis women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold

SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE.

A Companionable Crowd at Nimrod Hall.

MILLBORO, VA., Aug. 23.-Nimrod Hall, the sportsman's paradise, has never known a more successful season than it is now enjoying. Every room taken and by the very cream of the most compan-ionable people to be found, is it any wonder that the bankers, the lawyers, the August 23.—Many events have been railroad magnates, judges, commercial crowded into the past week at this reand cottages are situated, teem with the finny tribe, seemingly anxious to sacrifice themselves for the pleasure of their guests, and among the gentlemen, busi-ness terms are ignored, the burden of the conversation in each group is the best nake of rod, how to cast, the best way to froil, to wade the stream or stay in the boat, and then, sad to relate, state-ments of the size and weight of fish recently caught, which stagger the nov'ce, and cause him to wonder if such whales are really caught in that limpid stream Or. if the stories are the whales, now-ever, the fish are there all right, are caught almost by the bushel, possibly not as large, nor as heavy as the anglers next day really think, but nevertheless good fish.

Major Otway Allen and Hon. B. Rand Wellord in animated conversation; thought those three men so intimately asscriated with all the interests of Rich-niond were surely discussing the munic-ipal troubles of our capital city, and drew near to get a scoop. He got within ear-shet and comfortably fixed himself with rote book in hand to give to the world the ideas of the three best informed men were discussing the best route for a pedestrian trip to the peak of a near by mountain.

During the day the ladies, at least those who do not care to fish, amuse themselves with all the games from ping-pong to golf, from aroquet to shuttle cock. At night, kindred spirits of the male gender rest in quiet nooks with the fragrant cigar and the bottle of, oh, well, lets call it vichy; the younger set consume the time to "taps" in the mazy waltz, or the fascinating romp of an old Virginia reel.

Among the more recent names on the register are noted:

Major Otway S. Allen and family, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Manson, of Lynchburg; Hon. B. Rand Welford and family, of Richmond; Mrs. E. F. Hobbs, of Mt. Vernon, Ill.; M. O. Chance and family of Washington, D. C.; H. D. Keith, of Texas. During the day the ladies, at least those of Texas.

The picturesque drive from Miliboro station to Nimrod Hall is by no means the least attraction to the tourist, to this mecca of health searchers, the winding road, the constant change of scenery, the road, the constant change of scenery, the towering mountains, the deep gorges, hold the attention and the admiration of the tourist from start to finish of this one of the most fascinating drives to be found anywhere.

Mr. J. R. Kenley, general manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, is spending the summer with his family at Wildwood, a delightful retreat near Millboro station.

The Warm Spring correspondence of the The Warm Spring correspondence of the Times seem to be a little off in his citation of events at and around Milliboro.

The two darkevs. Holloway and Lonza Williams did have a little scrap and Holloway got a bullet in his leg from a pistol, but it was a very slight wound, and Holloway will-be ready for another church festival in a few days,

As to the martial spirit he so graphically describes, it is confined strictly to comments on the Phillippine policy of the United States. As to bearing arms, why. "guns are dangerous things in the hands of children, you know."

HOTEL VIRGINIA

August Has Many Pleasures at Virginia

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) HOTEL VIRGINIA, VIRGINIA BEACH, VA., August 23,-The impression that August is not pleasant at the sea shore is certainly an erroneous one, for at no time of the season has there been more delightful weather, and the hun-dreds that are seen enjoying the bathing at all hours shows that this pleasure has not decreased, and from present indications there will be a houseful as long a the hotel is kept open. The manager has, however, decided to close September 8th, as the hotel is now being painted and repaired for next season.

From 5 A. M., when the most enthusiastic go out for a swim, the time is completely occupied until a late hour at night, when the last strains of music from the ball room make the guest realize that they must sleep, as well as eat and be merry. The manager, Mr. C. A. Woolfolk, of Richmond, who is so well known and so deservedly popular, meets his guests with that genial smile that makes every one feel at home, and it can truly be said that this is a most home-like hotel, for whole families find congenial friends and amusements. There are the usual quota of card players, but most visitors are sat-isfied simply to enjoy the sea breezes, that are so invigorating. Wednesday night a regular cake walk was given in the ball room and was greatly enjoyed.

The following guests are now here:

COSTLY GEM SMUGGLED IN

It Belonged to a New York Society Woman's Beautiful Necklace. (By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, August 23 .- What is alleged to be an attempt to smuggle a $20,000 pearl necklace into the country in the dress of a New York society woman is engaging the attention of Custom

When the Kronprinz Wilhelm was sighted on Tuesday morning, Special Agent William H. Theobald went aboard the liner and finally found two hand some young women who were chatting together on deck. They were unconscious of his presence till the passengers were in line on the pier ready to declare their dutiable goods. Then he approached them and said to the younger and

"Madame, I happen to know that you have a $20,000 pearl necklee in your dress. I hope that you have not for gotten it and that you intend to announce "But I haven't any $20,000 nceklace."

"O, yes you have. I know just where you have it concealed. We know that you brought it over. We know that you bought it in Europe." The two women looked at each other through their tears. "Why, he must mean the necklace that I put in my corsage before coming ashore," exclaimed the younger woman, as she suddenly stepped out of the line and pulled a litte mesh of white tissue paper from the dress at her throat.

"This is a case that I do not wish to discuss," said Collector Stranahan, when asked about the mystery. He wouldn't deny that one of two New York women New York had attempted to smuggle a necklace on the Kronprinz Wilhelm.

of other appointees in this department. These who have not been selected seem to be wholly unsuitable."

"The only departure from strict non-sectarism in the conduct of the schools was a provision of the Philippine Commission, which made it lawful for a priest or minister of any established church in the Peublo, where a public school is situated, to teach religion for one-half hour three times, a week in the school building to the pupils whose parents have expressed a wish for such instruction.

Concerning proselyting the report says: "Not only is proselyting not allowed in any of the schools, but inquiry of the leaders of the four principal Protestant denominations here brings out the fact that so far as known by these leaders there is not one native Protestant Suncary school teacher in the entire archipelago."

The statement that one-third of the Protestant teachers ever taught a day before going to the Philippines, and that Catholic teacher are sent into the distant provinces is emphatically denied. (Special Dispatch to The Times) LYNCHBURG, VA., August 23.-A sent ous and unusual accident occurred Wednesday evening at a point on the road between Amherst Courthouse and Mit Moriah Church, and about four miles from the former. A party of young peo-ple in two vehicles, in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Scott, of Amherst, had been over to Mt. Moriah Church.

On their return at the point named the king bolt of the rear vehicle broke, precipitating its body to the ground and throwing the occupants out. At the same time the pair of horses attached to the vehicle ran off with its front wheels and the pole, but had not proceeded far when the note struck the surrey shead break ng in the back part and causing the top

This scared the horses to the surrey and they became unmanageable, and turned the surrey over with its occupants down a small embankment. They the joined the horses of the rear vehicle and ran a little way further on, when they Those who were in the rear vehicle were Mrs. Landon Scott, Miss Kone and Miss Tait, of Amherst; also Miss Mg-Cluer, or Norfolk, and a colored man who was driving. In the surrey were Mr. Landon Scott and Miss Scott, of Am-berst; Miss Nottingham, of Norfolk, and Mr. John Baskerville, of McIvors. Hardly one in the entire party escaped without cuts or bruises, and it is said that one lady had to have several stitches aken by a physician in a severe cut she received in the forehead. Yesterday all over reprod to be doing well at their secral homes, congratulating themselve-Mr. Barnes M. Rucker, formerly tebi-of the Krise Banking Company, but now of Chapman, S. C., is in the city on a visit to his sisters. Mrs. W. W. H. farris and Mrs. John J. Mays. Ma Rucker is engaged in the lumber bust ness in South Carolina.
